

CONTENTS

- 185 Special Issue Introduction
Kelly O'Donnell and Lauren MacIvor Thompson

CONVERSATIONS

- 190 Interview with Mary E. Fissell
Kelly O'Donnell and Lauren MacIvor Thompson

SHORT TAKES

- 199 Averting Miscarriage in Early Modern Europe
Kathleen Crowther
- 210 Contraception in the Classroom: Marketing the Pill to Teenagers in 1980s America
Jenna Healey

ARTICLES

- 220 Certificate Required: Drugstores and the Regulation of “Female Drugs”
in Late Nineteenth-Century Illinois
Emma Verstraete
- 242 “Utterly Impossible”: Investigating Drug-Related Abortions in South Carolina, 1872–1973
Cara Delay and Madeleine Ware
- 266 Plants into Pills: The World Health Organization and Fertility Regulation for Sovereign Futures in the 1970s
Joshua Mentanko
- 290 Free the Pill: The Movement for Over-the-Counter Contraceptives
Heather Munro Prescott and Suzanne Junod

BOOK REVIEWS

- 320 Alisha Rankin, The Poison Trials: Wonder Drugs, Experiment, and the Battle for Authority in Renaissance Science
Reviewer: Paige Donaghy
- 322 Aro Velvet, Pasteur's Empire: Bacteriology and Politics in France, Its Colonies, and the World
Reviewer: Charles A. Kollmer
- 325 Chris Elcock, Psychedelic New York: A History of LSD in the City
Reviewer: Zoe Dubus
- 327 Ido Hartogsohn, American Trip: Set, Setting, and the Psychedelic Experience in the Twentieth Century
Reviewer: Jonathan Sadowsky